More Than Four Thousand Looms Running in the United States.

Recent investigations show that there are in the United States 4,211 looms devoted mainly to the weaving of extra and medium super ca-pots. Of these looms, 2,189 are in Philadelphia, the remainder being scattered from Auburn, N. Y., to the Eastern companies. In States they are as follows: Pennsylvania, 2,183; New York, 300; Massachusetts, 375; Connecticut, 347. The average yield of an ingrain power-loom is thirty yards per diem, and the possible yield of the entire country in extra supers is 37,899,000 yards per annum. The value of the same is, at seventy cents per yard, $22,739,400. But all ingrain power looms are not running on "extras," and allowances will be made accordingly. The growth of the Brussels industry is interesting. In 1836 Brussels carpets were being woven in a few cells in Philadelphia by hand.
About that time, also, the Auburn (N. Y.) State prison under Mr. Barber, was turned out body-brussels, and the old factory at Astoria, where E. S.
Higginson bought in 1841, was one of the first to make Brussels. The Brussels manufacture, since the Bigelow loom was perfected, is familiar.
Since the war the great companies at Hartford, Lowell and Clinton have assumed large proportions, and turn out each year a magnificent product in Brussels, and other concerns are growing up about them. In the decade past Philadelphia has loomed and contains to-day a large proportion of the Brussels machinery of the country. There are in the United States, in position or about to be placed, 1,197 Brussels looms.
The number in each State is as follows:
Pennsylvania, 483; New York, 166;
Massachusetts, 100; Connecticut, 10; New Jersey, 10. The average yield of a Brussels loom is fifty yards a day, and all the Brussels looms in the country running on regular time would yield 17,955,000 yards in one year. Sundays and holidays excluded. Averaging stouts and five-frame goods at $1 per yard, the value of our total Brussels product would be $17,955,000. The largest tapestry-Brussels concern in the United States is that of the Alexander Smith & Sons Company at Yonkers, N.
Y. They have 250 looms on tapestries, and can turn out probably 45,000 yards per month.—Philadelphia Carpet Trade.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1886.

CHAS. M. MEACHAM - - EDITOR.

Christmas will come this year on 25th of December.

The President has adopted our suggestion and appointed Thanksgiving day for the 25th of this month.

Talibee's majority in the Tenth District was over 1,200 after all the loud claims of the Republicans.

The Covington Commonwealth advocates a general primary election instead of a convention to nominate State officers.

Col. J. Stoddard Johnston, of Frankfort, is an applicant for the Turkish Ministry and we would like to see him get it.

The Alabama Legislature has convened and yet the people of Alabama are expected to return thanks with the rest of the country on Thursday week.

Gen. Gordon was inaugurated as Governor of Georgia, at Atlanta, last Tuesday. Rutherford B. Hayes, a prominent poultry raiser of Ohio, occupied a seat on the stand.

There is no money on hand to keep the Goddess of Liberty's torch lighted and she is not throwing as much light on the wickedness of New York as it was hoped she would.

Prof. Foster, of Burlington, Ia., has entered the arena of weather prophets and predicts great storms, high winds and deep snows throughout the Western States between the 4th and 17th of December.

President Cleveland and Cabinet attended the celebration of the 250th anniversary of the founding of Harvard College on the 8th inst. James Russell Lowell delivered the oration and Oliver Wendell Holmes read the poem.

The New Jersey Legislature stands, Democrats 40, Republicans 39, Labor Democrat 1, and a tie in one district which will necessitate another election. Gov. Abbott is the leading Democratic candidate for U. S. Senator.

The statement made in the Cincinnati Times-Star that Mr. Carlisle will quit Congress after his next term and move to Kansas, is not credited. When Mr. Carlisle quits Congress it will probably be to go up higher.

The Mammoth Cave Railroad was finished last Saturday and the cars are now running. The formal opening will take place on the 17th at which time excursion parties from both Louisville and Nashville will meet at the Cave.

Four Honduras rebels, officers of high rank, were shot to death at Comayagua, Honduras, by order of President Bográn on the 18th of October. One of them, Gen. Delgado, refused a pardon offered on condition that he promise never to take up arms against the republic again.

An early state convention has been determined upon and the Democratic State Central and Executive Committees have been called to meet at Bühr's Hotel, Frankfort, on the 23rd inst., to consider the time and place of holding the convention to nominate State officers. It will probably be called for some time in February.

The Mayfield Monitor nominates Judge Clint, Handle, of Fulton county, as a Democratic candidate for Congress in the First District two years hence. If the Democrats of the district want to be represented by one of their brainiest men and an orator who is without a superior in the district, they can find such a man by addressing Jas. B. Garnett, of Cadiz.

Fotheringham, the express agent, has been lodged in jail charged with complicity in the Frisco robbery. In the meanwhile the Globe-Democrat has published a letter purporting to have been written by "Jim Cummings," exonerating the messenger. Cummings claims to have done the deed himself, and corroborates the statements made by Fotheringham as to the details of the robbery.

Twelve thousand soldiers participated in the war of 1812-14, which ended seventy-two years ago, and thirteen thousand three hundred and sixty-eight of the widows of those soldiers are drawing pensions. Every man of them must have been married and one thousand three hundred and sixty-eight of them had two wives, all of whom are yet living, or the government is being robbed by these pensioners.—Grayson Gazette.

Tommy Warren, of Louisville, and Patsy O'Leary, of Cincinnati, featherweight pugilists, fought twelve rounds near Muldraugh's Hill, Meade county, Tuesday morning early for the featherweight championship, for $1,000 a side. A special train took 1,000 people from Louisville at $5 a head, to see the fight. The men weighed 118 pounds each. O'Leary hit Warren in the mouth and scored the first blood, in the fourth round. Warren bled O'Leary's face in the sixth round. In the seventh and eighth Warren gained other advantages. In the ninth, tenth and eleventh no material points were scored. In the twelfth O'Leary committed a foul by striking Warren after they had been ordered to break away and the fight was awarded to Warren. There was a good deal of kicking over the decision.

KENTUCKY KNOWLEDGE.

Dr. C. J. Groves and E. H. Groves have failed at Georgetown for $60,000.

Wm. Bondurant shot and killed John Nelson near Mt. Sterling. Both were colored.

The residence of John Kohlheep, a mayor of Franklin, was burned Monday night. No insurance.

Thos. Cook killed Sam Murphy in Spencer Co., the night after the election, in a drunken mœve.

Mart Smith shot and killed Oscar Smith on the street in Stanford as the result of an old feud.

Patrick Graham, an aged Irishman, fell dead of heart disease in his stable at Flemingsburg, Monday.

The News, a new Democratic paper, will be started at Glasgow within a few days, by J. M. Richardson and J. B. Leslie.

Joe E. Foss, white, and Bettie Walker, col., eloped from Richmond to Cincinnati, where they were married last week.

The Daily Standard, Paducah, is riding upon the top wave of prosperity and will be enlarged and improved next Sunday.

A tobacco barn belonging to Mr. Hood, containing 12 acres of tobacco was burned near Bowling Green. No insurance.

Gov. Knott has offered a reward of $250 for the capture of the murderer of M. A. O'Brien, who was found dead in the Hodgenville court house.

An anvil exploded at Glasgow while the Republicans were jubilating. Monday night, and killed Walter Haggart and seriously wounded Jack Jones, county jailor, M. Hudleston and Wm. Richly. Jones' wound necessitated the amputation of his left leg below the knee. None of the injured parties except Jones were participants in the affair.

The last Legislature amended an act passed in 1878 which now makes it compulsory on all dentists or those who make a business of repairing or pulling teeth (except regular physicians) to register as dentists. Every dentist was compelled to register on or before the 8th of this month, and a dentist who has no diploma will not be allowed to register until he stands an examination before the State Board of Examiners. Any person who violates this law shall be indicted by a grand jury, and on conviction shall be fined not less than $50 nor more than $200 for each offense.—Somerset News.

An Editor's Surprise.

[Paducah Standard.]

The death of Judge Oury, of Murray, recalls a characteristic incident of him. A few years ago Otho Wilkins was publishing a red hot Democratic paper called the News, at Murray. He concluded to take a vacation, a week or two, and go to the press convention. He asked Judge Oury to occupy the editorial chair during his absence. The Judge kindly consented, and Otho set out in fine spirits, determined to make the best of this, one of the few opportunities for re-creation that come to the country editor. He might have known from the wicked gleam in the Judge's eye that he was not a safe man to leave at the helm of a first-class newspaper, but he didn't notice. No sooner had the mail hack left the city limits than the Judge set to work to transmogrify that paper into a rampant Republican sheet. He lauded Sherman and Morton and Bill Chandler to the skies. He declared the paper in favor of Grant for a third term, and cut several such capers as caused the fair of Caloway county Jeffersonians to stand on the end. Nor was this all. He described wonderful caves and freaks of nature; he spoke of the arrivals and departures of trains and boats; he gave the most stupendous accounts of the wonderful growth of the metropolitan city of Murray. Otho was in the midst of the gayety incident to a meeting of the press boys when a copy of his paper was handed him. He opened his paper with pleasure. The first paragraph caused surprise. The second knocked him from his seat and the third made him tear his hair in rage. He came home by the first express, and was kept busy for six weeks explaining to his five hundred angry subscribers how it all came about.

As a consequence that country will not produce much bacon next year. But after a twenty mile trip from noon o'clock this morning until four o'clock this evening, through rain and mud a good fire is enjoyable. Chas. Ellison fooled with a loaded pistol at Chattanooga, Tenn., and now he is mourning the death of a younger brother.

Owen O. Leggett, an English artist, was shot and killed at San Jose, Cal., by John Clark, who was recently discharged from an insane asylum.

Charles Ward, Jr., was found guilty of the murder of Jacob Francis at Danville, Ill., and his punishment fixed at seventeen years in the penitentiary.

A train was thrown from the track near Fosteria and a stamp named Chas. Murtha, who was stamping a ride, was killed.

Illinois supreme court at Mt. Vernon granted license to practice law to thirty-five applicants, and then adjourned the court in course.

A double-barreled elopement is reported from New York. Frank Duhaun left California in company with two giddy young creatures, and was followed to New York and arrested at the instigation of the father of one of them.

The Republican majority, official in Ohio is 11,681, in a vote of over 700,000. This is an increase of 339 over the vote of 1884.

The Bulgarian Sobranjachas elected Prince Waldemar, of Denmark, to the throne vacated by Alexander.

Good Results in Every Case. D. A. Bradford, wholesale paper broker, of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes, that he was seriously afflicted with a severe cold that settled on his lungs; had tried many remedies without benefit. Being induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, did so and was entirely cured by use of a few bottles. Since which time he has used it in his family for Coughs and Colds with best results. This is the experience of thousands whose lives have been saved by this wonderful Discovery.

Green's Anti-Bilious and Liver Extract. Price 50 cents. For sale by G. E. Gaither.

For Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Croup and all diseases of the Lungs and Bronchial tubes or air passages, use Dr. Jackson's Lungwort and Wild Cherry, it is an unfailing remedy and very pleasant. This is the experience of thousands whose lives have been saved by this wonderful Discovery.

Trial Bottles free at J. R. Armstrong's Drug Store, Hopkinsville, Ky. Prices 25 cents 50 cents and 1.00 per bottle.

HADDOCK'S SCHOOL HOUSE.

Ed. SOUTH KENTUCKIAN : Having been somewhat indisposed for several days you need not expect much this week.

Mr. H. H. Lindsey, who lives near Antioch church, had a horse and wagon stolen a few nights ago but we learned to-day that he had recovered them; we did not get the particulars.

Mr. C. C. Van Hoosier has migrated from Tennessee and settled in our neighborhood.

Corn gathering is now going on at a rapid pace, will soon be over, owing to the inferior crop this year.

There are fewer hogs in this section than were ever known before, much to the sorrow of those men who always market a fine lot.

We were in the neighborhood of Belview last Saturday and had the pleasure of stopping over Saturday and Sunday with the family of Henry Underwood. I had quite a curiosity to see Henry's farm as you know he is considered by the Hopkinsville tobacco buyers as one of those rare men who market every year a first-class crop of tobacco. No matter about the seasons, Henry by some hook or crook will deliver a fine crop of tobacco; he took great delight in showing us his farm, stock, machinery, etc. We were treated very kindly by him and good and attentive lady. Lord! what pretty girls there are about Belview.

Miss Minnie Cooper, a very attractive young lady of this vicinity, will arrive in a few days for Tennessee where she will make her home in the future.

Some sneaking thief made a raid on our chicken roost the other night and got two crows and a layer; come again partner, the hero of the barn-yard is still left.

Irvin Foster and wife, who parted some time since, have concluded to winter together. ARTHUR.

KELLY'S, KY.

Nov. 9, 1886.

Lest you should think I am gone for good it is high time I was writing a few more feeble lines. I have just returned to-day from Caldwell county where I have been on a visit in company with three others. Going down we had a bright sunshiny day that would have made the trip enjoyable but for a cold disagreeable wind that blew in our faces all day.

We set out at 8:30 A. M. and at 3:30 P. M., we arrived at the end of our first day's journey tired, cold and hungry, but warm hearts and kind hands soon provided for our comforts with warm fires and plenty of food for ourselves and tired stock. Our return to-day was fully as disagreeable on account of the cold drizzling rain.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 8, '86.
TO THE SOUTH KENTUCKIAN:

The city has been in a fever of excitement ever since Wednesday, and no signs of it abating are yet seen. Republicans as well as Democrats have been unsevered for any work, and in the Departments the nervousness is as marked in the Republicans as in the Democrats. The former, however, make a strong effort to suppress any manifestation of concern, but the conflicting emotions are too strong for concealment. They are battling between the desire to see their party succeed, and the desire to hold office under the present administration. The Democrats, on the other hand, are a little apprehensive of the future, and naturally show much concern, although they express confidence in the strength of their party to carry the next Presidential election. The Republicans in office, when asked for their opinion as to the cause of the result, attributed it to the fact that the Democrats agreed upon every point save as to Moresnet. Each country claimed the zinc mines, or an adequate indemnity. It was finally resolved to consider the miserable tract of land, which contained only squid hills near the mines, independent and neutral. Since then the condition of the territory has greatly changed. It contains rich zinc mines which are worked by the Societe de la Vieille Montagne. In 1852 a commission was appointed to fix the boundary line between Prussia and the Netherlands, which was agreed upon in every point save as to Moresnet. Each country claimed the zinc mines, or an adequate indemnity.

The President will be so much occupied from now till Congress meets in discussing with his cabinet officers the various subjects to be treated in their reports, that he has found it necessary to issue an order declining to see visitors except on two days in the week. When he returns from Boston in the early part of the week, he will settle down to hard work and take no more pleasure trips until probably next summer after the adjournment of Congress.

The French visitors to the Bartholdi statue ceremonies spent the latter part of last week in Washington, and received a great deal of attention from the citizens and from foreign citizens. They were accorded a special reception by the President, and afterwards visited all the Departments and met the Cabinet officer presiding over each. Several of the distinguished guests are men of scientific note and they took a deep interest in the advance in the arts as disclosed by the models and illustrative sketches in the Patent Office. They asked particularly to be shown the first sewing machine and Robert Fulton's models of steam boats, and studied them with much interest.

Prince Louis Napoleon was also here with his private secretary, Ch閙alier Michela, in the early part of the week. Count Albert de Foresto, secretary of the Italian legation, welcomed the distinguished visitors, and formed their escort while here. The prince had a private interview of fifteen minutes with the President and was received as a distinguished visitor, not as an official, Secretary Bayard introducing the visitors.

We are having distinguished Japanese visitors with us this week.

The uncle of the Mikado is here with his suite, among whom is the Prince and Princess Komatsu, the Grand Chamberlain of the court of the Prince, and the Commissary of Ordinance, Count Bodja.

There are with them several wealthy merchants of Japan, and all of them are being shown much attention, not only by our officials, but also by the Diplomatic Corps.

The bright and charming weather of the past week seemed to have attracted a number of bridges than usual to the city. One day during the week there were not less than 10 bridal couples at one time in the spacious marble halls of the Patent Office building. These couples always make it a point to visit the White House, and to select an opportunity when they can see the President. They expect at the same time to see Mrs. Cleveland, but they are frequently disappointed in that pleasure. Mrs. Cleveland holds no weekly receptions now and will not for some time to come.

Not Complete Without It.

It affords me great pleasure to certify to the value of Gooch's Mexican Syrup, having tried it during the past winter and Spring. My four children, ranging in age from 2 to 9, took severe coughs, and after doctoring two months without any benefit, and the youngest growing exceedingly worse, I was advised to try Mexican Syrup, and am happy to state that after using three bottles all were cured, and I cheerfully recommend it to any one suffering from cold, or weak lungs. We could not feel our household wants were completed without a bottle of Gooch's Mexican Syrup. Respectfully,

J. Lewis Sagedorff,

Manager Sagedorff, Iron Roofing & Paint Co.

Gooch's Mexican Syrups cure night sweats and all lung troubles.

LAFAYETTE, KY.

EDITOR SOUTH KENTUCKIAN:
Our little town is quiet once more. Had quite a stir among us election day. Had one fight and a great many exciting talks.

Athony Rives died Thursday morning from a blow received from Aaron Hays. Drunk and making a fool of himself was the cause.

A great deal of sickness in our community, but it is confined principally to the children.

Mr. West is very low with pneumonia at the Lafayette Hotel.

Tessie Griffin, little son of J. W. and Sallie B. Griffin, died Tuesday evening after a very short illness. We extend to the bereaved parents our heartfelt sympathies. May they rest assured that little Tessie is with the angels, "for such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

Sam. Anglin and John Bayham are very much interested in a certain side-walk and purpose to do the right things about it.

Miss Zora Davidson is visiting Miss Annie Ellis, near Salineburg. Ed. Bogard says she stays a long time.

Emmett Cooper says he can't get to Sunday school in time since he has moved to the country.

W. I. Fraser was among his friends here this week, looking as natural as ever.

Mr. James Rossette was mixing with his many friends here Friday. We are always glad to see him.

The following is the Honor Roll of Lafayette High School for October:

Katie Fuqua '92; Eva Dickerson '93; Laura Carter '90; Rosa Young '91; Lula Carter '94; Jake Sherrill '90; Judson Dickerson '90; Mack Purcell '91; Irwin Fraser '91; Maxie Johnson '92; Augusta Miller '91; Maxie Joiner '93; Lizzie Edwards '93; Fannie Edwards '91; Eva Griffin '93; Miller '91; Walter Tuck '93; Cora Williams '93; Lydia Robertson '92; Elmira Keatts '91; Cornelia Lester '94; Claude Boyd '90; Frank Boyd '90.

The two sat down at the desk, and Mr. Lawyer put down eleven ciphers on the paper, as follows:

0000 0000 0000 0000

The president looked at them and said: "Well, I don't see anything strange about that."

"What is that stand now?" said the Chicago Congressman. "But wait a sec." Then he took up the pencil again and said:

"Make a straight line down the lower right-hand corner of the first cipher; that changes it to g. Then mark a straight line from the upper right-hand corner of the fourth cipher, and that makes it k. Then put another similar straight line down on the fifth cipher and make it g; a straight line up the seventh cipher to it makes it d. Then another straight line up on the eighth cipher to it will be d also, and a straight line down on the tenth and that will make it g, and there you have a sentence, and one, it is said, you use the offce, and one, it is said, you use the offce, and one, it is said, you use the offce, and one, it is said, you use the offce."

The President looked at the puzzle as altered, and read:

"Good God, do go!"

He looked at the Hon. Frank a minute, and finally said, "Well, I say it to you." The Chicago Congressman has been very busy showing the Cleveland puzzle all around to-day.

An End to Bone Scraping.

Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg Ill., says: Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I wish to let suffering humanity know it. I have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and never had any trouble with the right leg. Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 25¢, per box by J. R. Armistead.

The President looked at the puzzle as altered, and read:

"Good God, do go!"

He looked at the Hon. Frank a minute, and finally said, "Well, I say it to you." The Chicago Congressman has been very busy showing the Cleveland puzzle all around to-day.

EUROPE'S SMALLEST STATE:

The Republic of Moresnet Between Prussia and the Netherlands.

The smallest state in Europe—six square kilometres—is the territory of Moresnet, between Verviers and Aix-la-Chapelle. It contains rich zinc mines which are worked by the Societe de la Vieille Montagne. In 1852 a commission was appointed to fix the boundary line between Prussia and the Netherlands, which was agreed upon in every point save as to Moresnet. Each country claimed the zinc mines, or an adequate indemnity.

The President looked at the puzzle as altered, and read:

"Good God, do go!"

He looked at the Hon. Frank a minute, and finally said, "Well, I say it to you." The Chicago Congressman has been very busy showing the Cleveland puzzle all around to-day.
